The team gathered on Sunday to work on the Project Plan Design Document. The document was almost fully completed that day. A couple members met with our client/advisor Monday night to go over the design document and slides for our Lightning Talk. We presented in class on Tuesday. We broke into small groups and met at different times to revise the design document before submitting Friday night.

Pending Issues

None.

Plans for Upcoming Reporting Period

The team needs to work on the next design document and meet with our client/advisor on Sunday.
